

TERIS names Jason Marandas new Sales Manager for San Francisco Office

Seasoned sales executive brings technology, litigation support and international sales experience to leading eDiscovery solutions provider

San Francisco, CA – December 22, 2009 – TERIS announced today that Jason Marandas has joined the company as Sales Manager for its San Francisco office. Marandas will lead the sales team as it expands its Electronic Discovery, Computer Forensics and related litigation support service provider offerings to law firms and corporations in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Marandas has more than 12 years sales experience working with leading companies such as WebEx/Cisco, eUniversity and Corporate Express. He returns to TERIS, where he previously had served as Sales Manager in 2002, when the company was known as American Legal Copy. In his previous roles, Marandas set sales records, developed and helped close record deals and had the highest quarter ending bookings among a group of 17 sales professionals. He also successfully grew a sales team in the United Kingdom from five sales representatives to sixteen representatives, across London and Amsterdam offices while respectively increasing bookings quarter after quarter.

“We welcome Jason back to TERIS as we enter this exciting phase of growth,” said Stefan Wikstrom, Founder and CEO of TERIS. “We have evolved dramatically over the years, and find ourselves working with clients in eDiscovery, Forensic Services, Investigations and related IT issues. Jason’s success working for and with technology companies is a great asset for us as we continue to expand our growing list of clients in the Bay Area.”

Marandas joins TERIS after spending more than three years as Sales Manager for the United Kingdom SMB Division for WebEx/Cisco. He also served as a sales representative for the company, where he won Rookie of the Quarter and Presidents Club honors. Prior to WebEx/Cisco, Marandas worked in the sales group for eUniversity, where he set company sales records. He also worked as Sales Manager for Corporate Express for five years.

Marandas received a Bachelor of Science in Commerce –Finance from Santa Clara University.
