

TERIS promotes Kevin Brooks to Executive Vice President, Northern California

Expanded role and responsibility comes after Brooks solidifies TERIS Silicon Valley as region's unprecedented litigation support services leader

Palo Alto, CA – February 26, 2010 – TERIS announced today that Kevin Brooks has been promoted to Executive Vice President for its Northern California operations. Brooks was previously managing partner for TERIS Silicon Valley.

“Kevin’s track record at TERIS has quite simply been stellar,” said Stefan Wikstrom, TERIS Founder and CEO. “He has proven to be a highly effective team builder and is absolutely committed to providing outstanding client management and service on a consistent basis. It has been impressive to witness how much the Silicon Valley facility has grown under his leadership and we look forward to seeing similar results as his responsibilities expand to our San Francisco office as well.”

With this move, Brooks is now responsible for TERIS’ Bay Area operations, overseeing the company’s San Francisco and Silicon Valley offices. Brooks manages the facilities’ day-to-day functions, including recruiting, hiring and training top talent in sales and production and ensuring client satisfaction. Under his leadership, TERIS Silicon Valley grew to become the highest revenue producer in the company’s history and has consistently been one of its top producing and profitable facilities.

Prior to joining TERIS, Brooks was an account Manager at Corporate Express, where he was recognized as the top representative bringing in the most new business in the Northern California region. He received a bachelor's degree in Organizational Communication with a minor in Business Administration from California State University, Chico.

Kevin is a member of the board of directors for Peninsula Boxing, a local nonprofit organization dedicated to serving underprivileged or at-risk youth as well as adult community members. It provides an after-school amateur boxing program for youth as well as a noncontact recreational boxing fitness program for adults.
