“We are very honored to be recognized by Attorney Journal,” said Patrick Conolly, TERIS San Diego Managing Partner. “Our success wouldn't have been possible without the contributions of our amazing team of professionals. They are the heart and soul of the company and we depend on them daily to support our clients' diverse litigation support needs.”

In naming TERIS Litigation Support Firm of the Month, Attorney Journal featured the company in its most recent issue. The article cited testimonials from TERIS clients, including Nancy Stagg, Principal at Fish & Richardson P.C. She notes in the article, “My staff and I enjoy working with TERIS on our paper and e-discovery projects because we know from our experience with them that they will go the extra mile and we can count on them in a crunch. They've never let us down and they always react to our crazy, time-sensitive requests with a “yes, sure we can do it.” And they do.”

TERIS has served the San Diego legal community since 1998, when it opened its first office as American Legal Copy. The company changed its name to TERIS in January 2009.
