San Francisco – July 6, 2011 – TERIS announced today that it has promoted Claudine Schardijn to General Manager of its San Francisco location. Schardijn has been acting manager of the office since January and through the first half of 2011 has helped lead the sales and production team to near-record revenues for the region to date.

“Claudine has been instrumental to the recent success experienced by the TERIS San Francisco team,” said Kevin Brooks, Executive Vice President, TERIS Bay Area. “The number of clients who require unique eDiscovery solutions continues to grow and she has successfully used her team leadership skills and experience to help build the San Francisco office beyond expectations. Her strong reputation as a results-oriented professional who always keeps the clients’ goals in mind regardless of the challenge at hand has proven valuable as we continue to add to our already impressive client roster.”

Schardijn has more than 14 years of litigation technology experience. She has spent the bulk of her time at TERIS consulting with high-level clients, helping them to better understand new technologies and providing them with solutions to lower costs and improve results. Schardijn has extensive business development experience in the litigation support industry, having managed and supported both AmLaw 200 and Fortune 500 clients. She has also acted as lead Project Manager for a high-level Bay Area Fortune 100 company, where she worked on the largest merger in the corporation’s history.

Schardijn is a member of the Silicon Valley chapter of Women in eDiscovery. She graduated from California State University – Sacramento with a B.S. in Criminal Justice and Administration.
